

Face Mask detection In Real time using Deep learning

Screenshots of Results

The machine ran a face detection algorithm. In a window named frame, a face has been detected. The detector categorized the face as mask and no mask with an accuracy score of indicating that the face mask was identified.

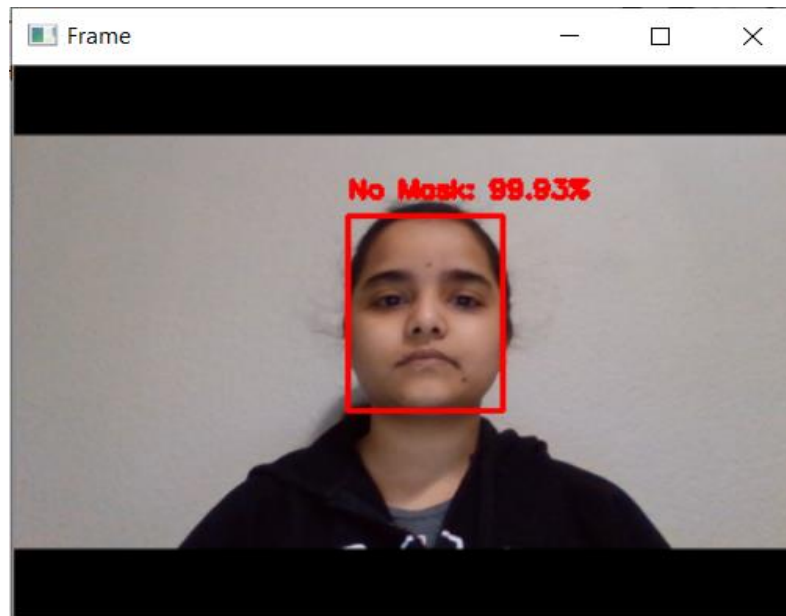

Image without mask along with text showing Accuracy

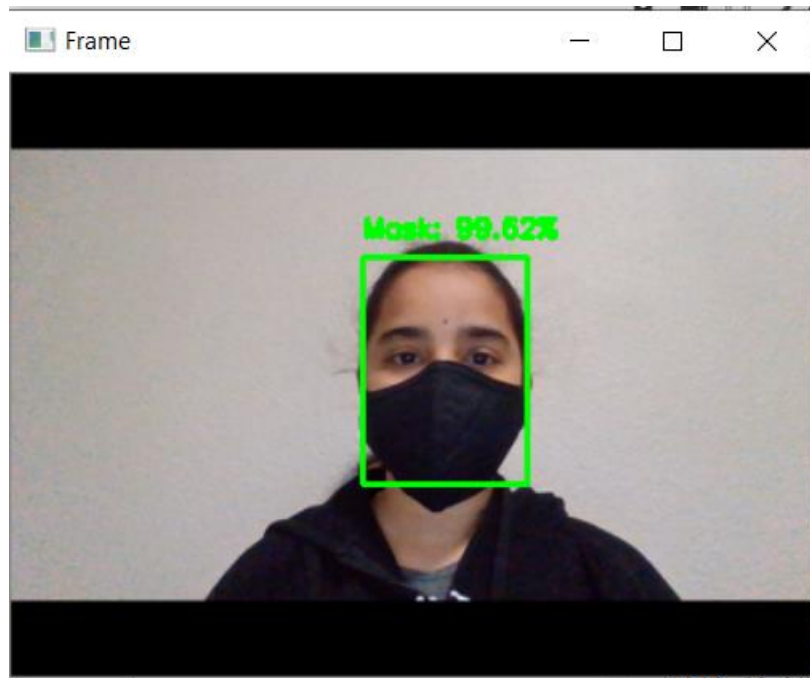

Image with mask along with text showing Accuracy

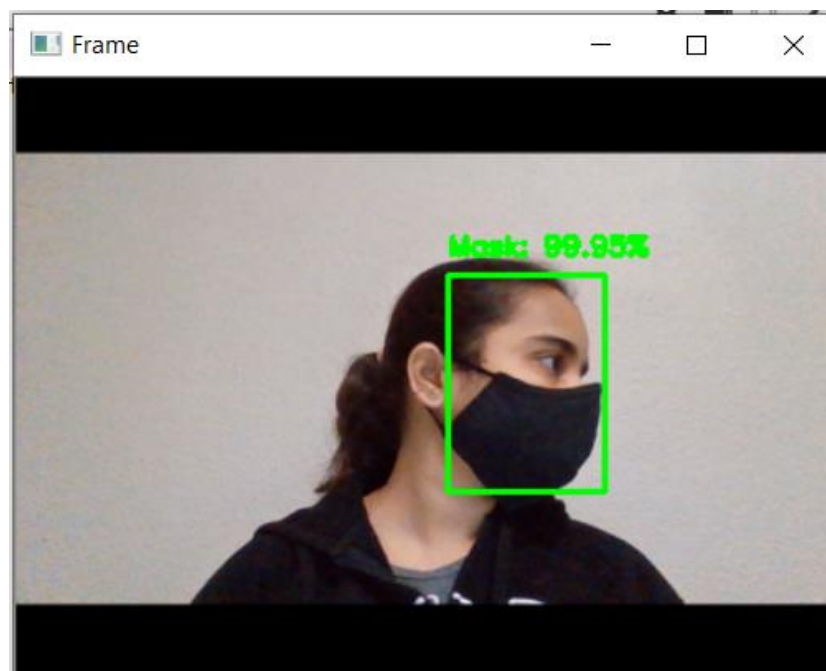

Image with mask along with text showing Accuracy in different angles